SRG Global (ASX: SRG) has secured $125m of contracts in the Energy and Resources sectors across Australia. Financial year to date contract wins now total circa $776m and follow $1.2b wins in FY23. Tenders & Pipeline total circa $6.5b. We forecast SRG to deliver EBITDA growth of 22.7% in FY24 versus comparable companies which are expected to deliver growth of around 17.3%. - As the table above shows, SRG grew its EBITDA by 40% in FY23 versus comparable ASX-listed companies which grew by 26%. In FY25, we forecast SRG to grow EBITDA by 23% versus comparable companies with FactSet consensus growth of around 17%. Comparable company trading multiples suggest SRG should be trading somewhere in the range $0.99 to $1.03.
- We make no changes to our forecasts at this time. SRG recently upgraded its FY24 guidance to EBITDA in the range $95m - $100m. Our forecast remains $98.3m and our DCF valuation remain $1.20 per share.

Recommendation

SRG's recent results and FY24 outlook provide strong evidence that SRG is delivering on its strategy and is a lower risk investment when compared to many construction and mining service peers given the recurring nature of a large portion of its revenue (circa 80%). We additionally expect the macro-outlook to remain strong, across infrastructure, asset services, mining and select construction. SRG is trading at a discount to its ASX-listed peers despite delivering higher EBITDA growth. SRG is also trading at a material discount to our $1.20 price target. Accordingly, we retain our BUY rating.

Valuation

DCF Valuation

Our DCF valuation remains $1.20 per share.

The key assumptions underlying our valuation are a Beta of 1.2, WACC of 9.5%, and terminal growth rate of 2.5%.

Key risks

- Project delays: The construction and mining service operations in Australia that SRG is exposed to have been considered critical infrastructure and as such were allowed to continue as essential businesses during COVID. There have been some (hopefully) temporary delays in the award of new projects and some maintenance work. Project delays may result in lower earnings than we forecast.
- Industry risk: S&P categorize the global construction sector as having above-average risks. However, SRG's focus on Asset and Mining Services and annuity (and alliance) style contracts have helped manage this risk.
- Customer risk: SRG has a broad range of customers across its three business units. No revenue from transactions with a single external customer amount to 10% or more of the Group's revenue. Key Government (good relationships with State and Federal NZ and Australia) and blue-chip corporate clients including Rio Tinto, Woodside, South 32, Yara, Multiplex, CPB etc.
- Employee risk: SRG has roughly 2,300 employees, 21% are technical, engineering and management with the remaining 79% operational. In regard to key personnel, the Board and Management own 12% of the issued capital, aligning their interests with other shareholders.
- Commodity Prices: SRG is exposed to commodity price risk through its consumption of steel its operations use for post-tensioning, and to a lesser degree in the mining services business. SRG monitors forward steel prices and endeavours to lock in agreed prices on a project-by-project basis prior to formalizing bid prices wherever possible.
- Foreign Exchange: SRG is exposed to foreign exchange risk in overseas projects executed by local subsidiaries. SRG does not hedge this risk however continues to monitor exchange rates so that currency exposure is maintained at an acceptable level. There is a natural hedge in place to the extent project costs are materially of the same foreign currency.
- WBHO & Asset Care Acquisitions Integration Risk: Any transaction comes with some integration risk.

Core drivers and catalyst

- Infrastructure investment by both governments and private sector.
- Maintenance expenditure continues to increase, driven by number of assets and outsourcing trend.
- Rising commodity prices boosting Mining investment.
- All the above, resulting in improving order book / WIH / pipeline.
- Higher recurring revenues.
- Lower risk alliance style contracts.
- Acquisitions / M&A potential.
- Margin improvement, especially in construction.
- Growth opportunities from WBHO and ALS Asset Care acquisitions.

ASIC has published information to assist consumers in understanding the risks and benefits associated with an investment in hybrid securities or listed debt instruments. This information can be found under the heading ‘Complex Investments’ at www.moneysmart.gov.au/investing.
